

FREE Poetry Workshop and Digital Skills Training in Paisley

Poetry workshop - Paisley Arts Centre, 6-8pm on Thursday 12 October

'Write Time Write Place' is a free creative writing workshop that promises to be a fun, informative 2-hour session with award-winning poet Sam Tongue. Read more about it, and book your free place, here: <https://www.voluntaryarts.org/writetime>

Digital Skills training - Wynd Centre, 10am - 4.30pm on 14 November

This digital skills training session is specifically for people aged 50+ who help run a creative group.

The session will be led by digital specialist Fin Wycherley and will cover:

- How to set up and manage a Facebook page/group
- Getting to grips with Facebook advertising
- How to create posters and flyers using Canva (free online software)
- How to create a digital newsletter using Mailchimp (free online software)

This workshop is being funded by the Scottish Government as part of its wider Digital Scotland programme, delivered through SCVO's Digital Participation Charter Fund.

For more information about this training and to book your free place, see - <https://digitalskillspaisley.eventbrite.com> . If you would prefer to book your place over the phone, please contact Cassandra Barron on 0131 561 7333.