

Gender Recognition Act 2004 – Consultation

Scottish Government consultation seeks to gather views on whether and how the Gender Recognition Act 2004 should be amended in relation to the law in Scotland. The consultation seeks views on simplifying legal processes for transgender and non-binary people.

If you would like to complete this consultation or find out more info about it please visit link below:

<https://news.gov.scot/news/gender-recognition-act>