

Stigma in childhood project seminar

Addressing and alleviating stigma in childhood

Wednesday 30th August & Thursday 31st August 2017 |
Scottish Universities Insight Institute

Draft Programme

Wednesday 30th August

09.00 Registration and refreshments

09.30 Welcome and setting the context

Professor Andrew Kendrick, University of Strathclyde

09.45 Keynote

Addressing Stigma in Childhood: Perspectives from CrossReach,

Viv Dickenson & Paul Gilroy, CrossReach

10.15 Question and answer session

10.30 Table top discussion workshops

Please choose one workshop from the following:

1. HIV-related stigma among children living with HIV in Sweden
Dr Lise-Lott Rydström and Dr Maria Wiklander, Karolinska Institute, Sweden
2. Addressing stigma and mental health in schools
Julie Cameron and Dr Aisling McBride, Mental Health Foundation
3. You just feel like everyone is judging you: Stigma and information access for young parents
Dr Cara Jardine, University of Strathclyde
4. Care experienced young people addressing stigma
Care experienced young people from North Lanarkshire

11.30 Keynote

Epilepsy-Associated Stigma: Implications for Talking About Childhood Epilepsy

Dr Veronica Lambert, Dublin City University

12.00 Question and answer session

12.15 Lunch

13.15 Keynote
Addressing Stigma in Childhood through Children's Rights

Tam Baillie, former Children's Commissioner for Scotland

13.45 Question and answer session

14.00 Table top discussion workshops

Please choose one workshop from the following:

1. HIV-related stigma among children living with HIV in Sweden
Dr Lise-Lott Rydström and Dr Maria Wiklander, Karolinska Institute, Sweden
2. Addressing stigma and mental health in schools
Julie Cameron and Dr Aisling McBride, Mental Health Foundation
3. You just feel like everyone is judging you: Stigma and information access for young parents
Dr Cara Jardine, University of Strathclyde
4. Care experienced young people addressing stigma
Care experienced young people from CrossReach

15.00 Summary and closing remarks Professor Andrew Kendrick, University of Strathclyde

15.30 Close

Thursday 31st August

09.00 Registration and refreshments

09.30 Welcome and setting the context
Professor Andrew Kendrick, University of Strathclyde

09.45 Keynote
It's like I'm a rock star": How disabled youth navigate stigma through friendship
Dr Nancy Salmon, University of Limerick

10.15 Question and answer session

10.30 Keynote
TBC

11.30 Keynote
Ending Stigma and Discrimination of Care Experienced Young People
Duncan Dunlop, Who Cares? Scotland

12.00 Question and answer session

12.15 Lunch

13.15 Keynote
Stigma and Childhood: Learning from Other Places
Andrew Kendrick, University of Strathclyde

13.45 Question and answer session

14.00 Table top discussion workshops

Taking forward the Stigma in Childhood Project:

1. Research on stigma in childhood
2. Dissemination and knowledge exchange
3. Impacting policy in organisations
4. Involving children and young people in future work

15.00 Summary and closing remarks

Professor Jennifer Davidson, Institute for Inspiring Children's Futures

15.30 Close

For further information on the Childhood and Stigma Project visit our webpage at:

<http://www.scottishinsight.ac.uk/Programmes/Learningfromotherplaces/StigmaInChildhood.aspx>

This seminar is free.

You can register for the seminar through the webpage or directly through Eventbrite at:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/stigma-in-childhood-tickets-36309947029>