

RAINBOW TURTLE'S

FAIR TRADE PRODUCER

VISIT

ANJALI SCHIAVINA

founder of Mandala Apparels, Pondicherry, India.

This October we're privileged to welcome Anjali to Paisley. She has vast experience of working with organic cotton farmers and textile producers in India and she'll be visiting us in Renfrewshire as part of our series of COMMON THREADS events; looking at the connections between local history and the other parts of the world that now produce most of the clothes and textiles in our high street shops.

Come and join us for an inspiring evening on Thursday 12th of October, 7.15-10pm

at St. Mirin's Cathedral Hall, Ince St. Paisley. PA1 1HR.

...where we'll hear from

Anjali

and enjoy a

3-Course Fair Trade Meal

(BYOB)

Scottish
Fair Trade
Forum

Also incorporating The Scottish Fair Trade Forum's 5th annual Awards

celebrating the achievements of campaigners throughout Scotland

Tickets: £20 with all proceeds supporting the work of Rainbow Turtle Charity - available in our Gauze St. shop and through our website

As part of our COMMON
THREADS events

With support from Renfrewshire Fair Trade
Steering Group

GET IN TOUCH!

Tel: 0141-887-1881
7 Gauze St. Paisley. PA1 1EP.

www.rainbowturtle.org.uk
E-mail:
education@rainbowturtle.org.uk

@RainbowTurtleUK